

Ollscoil
Teicneolaíochta
an Atlantaigh

Atlantic Technological University

Certificate in Access Studies

University Access Course

FREE Course

Access to multiple undergraduate degrees

Online – 2 evenings per week

Starting February

The Curve

Programme overview

The Certificate in Access Studies is designed to provide participants with an alternative route into university. On successful completion of this programme, participants are eligible to apply directly for undergraduate programmes in ATU Donegal (quotas apply on some programmes).

In order to be considered eligible to join the Certificate in Access Studies, you must be sitting or have completed at least one A-Level and at least one BTEC Award, which could include a Subsidiary Diploma or 90 Credit Diploma or Diploma or Extended Diploma.

Key Features

- > FREE – there is no fee for this programme
- > Modules support GCSE/A Level Studies
- > Access to multiple undergraduate programmes
- > Join a community of 25,000 students
- > Careers module supports strengths identification
- > Online delivery 2 evenings per week
- > Experience one-day on-campus tuition
- > University Fees in ROI - €3,000 per year

Programme Structure

The programme is delivered online two days per week as outlined below:

Tuesday 6pm-8pm	Application of Numbers	Computer Studies
Thursday 6pm-8pm	English Writing Skills	College Skills and Career Planning

Start Date and further information

The programme starts in February annually and closing date for applications is 26 January.

For further information or to request an application form please contact Andy at Andrew.malone@atu.ie or 074 9186171.

Ollscoil
Teicneolaíochta
an Atlantaigh

Atlantic
Technological University